Familiarity at its Work.

The following petitions, which we find in the Boston Liberator, are being extensively circulated and signed in Massachusetts by the Abolition party.

The undersigned, citizens of Massachusetts, respectfully ask you to put an end to SLAVE-HUNTING, in Massachusetts, by amending that no person who has been held as a slave shall be delivered up, by any officer of court, State or Federal, within this Commonwealth, to any one claiming him, on the ground that he owes "service or labor" to such claimant, by the laws of one of the Slave States of the Union.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of Massachusetts.

We, the undersigned citizens of Massachusetts, respectfully ask you to remove from the State House grounds—as no honor to the State, and repugnant to the moral sentiment of the people—the statue of DANIEL WEBSTER, whose last years were spent in defending the Fugitive Slave Bill, and whose last words were "I have been held as a slave." We demand that the statue of Daniel Webster be removed from the State House grounds for the reason that during his life the great expounder of the Constitution defended the sacred instrument from the hands of those who would trample it in the dust.

The first Fugitive Slave Law met the approval of Washington, the first President. Under its provisions, all that was required was for the person claiming a fugitive from labor, to prove his property before some Justice of the Peace, and armed with Justice's order, the alleged slave was taken from the State. Under this law, numerous cases of kidnapping occurred, by Justice's ordering to bondage colored persons who really owed no service.

In 1850 this law was so changed that United States Commissioners—others appointed by the Circuit or District Court of the United States—alone have cognizance in such cases. This law added to the security of the negro race, for among the Justices of the Peace, numbering fifteen to fifty in each county, it was easy to find one at least that would give up an alleged fugitive upon proof that would not satisfy an honest or a sensible man. The Commissioners appointed under the law have a higher grade of talent—are gentlemen acquainted with the law and with the rules of evidence, and no alleged fugitive, unless upon good evidence that he really owes service, can ever be given up. In this change, the present moment, the Fugitive Law has been bitterly assailed and its provisions boldly violated by those who seek to build up a government upon the ruins of our own, where negroes are to be the chief object of governmental care, and whites occupy but a secondary position.

ANNUAL SESSIONS OF THE LEGISLATURE.—The official vote on the question of annual sessions of the Legislature, which was submitted to the people of Ohio at the last election, is as follows:
In its favor 101,178
Against 76,394
The amendment is lost, nevertheless, as it did not receive a majority of all the votes cast at the election, as exhibited by the returns on State officers. The reason of its defeat consisted, probably, in the fact that while provision was made for annual sessions of the Legislature, it was not accompanied with the provision for annual elections for members of the Legislature. Annual legislative elections and annual sessions, if submitted together, carry.

FREE NEGROES ON RAILROADS.—A bill has been introduced in the Tennessee Legislature to prevent free negroes traveling on the railroads in that State, which passed at the first reading. The bill provides that the President who shall permit a free negro to travel on any road within the jurisdiction of the State under his supervision shall pay a fine of $500, any conductor permitting a violation of the act shall pay a fine of $250, provided such negro is not under the control and care of a free white citizen of Tennessee, who vouches for the character of said free negro in a penal bond of $1,000. Such are the fruits of Abolitionism. Every move which the fanatical knaves make for the elevation of the colored man, only tends to sink him deeper in moral and social condition. If he has a real and moral social and political enemy, it is the ranting Abolitionist.

THE LONDON TIMES denounces slavery as the vilest sort of thing, and, of course, pours out its venom on the nation which encourages it. Yet, from that adversary we pluck the following snap at the Harper's Ferry Newadists: "Of course, there can but be no issue to this foolish and wicked enterprise. The insurgents will by their fate give a warning to all who may dream of remedying a great social evil by an appeal to arms." Yet the Times is not consistent with itself, nor, indeed, with truth, in this declaration. But let that pass. The "foolish and wicked enterprise" of the heroized Old Brown is wicked and foolish enough to merit denunciation even from The London Times.

THE GOVERNMENT OF PERU has entered into a contract with Doctor Edward Cullen for the introduction of twenty-five thousand Irish emigrants. The principal stipulations are that the emigrants shall renounce allegiance to their Government, and must become Peruvian citizens. The Government of Peru has to pay their sea passage, and every passenger is to have about half an acre of land at an elevation of four thousand feet above the level of the sea.

JOHN BROWN, JR. is in Ashabula county at this time. He has been in Canada, but at present is residing five miles from Jefferson, and J. B. Giddings' son proclaims that he is armed with thirty-two and three-bore knives and will never be taken alive. John, on his return from Canada, asserted that his father never would be hung, and that a force was concentrating to rescue him, and that the Harper's Ferry war was not yet ended. These facts we have from persons of undoubted veracity in Ashabula county says the Dealer.
